Research assessments that promote scholarly progress and reinforce the contract with society

Academy Palace, Brussels, 16 June 2020

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Speaker(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 9:30   | Welcome and Introduction                                    | • Antonio Loprieno: President of ALLEA
• Koen Vermeir: Co-Chair of the Global Young Academy                                                                                 |
| 9:45   | Setting the stage: The place of science in society          | • April Tash, UNESCO, Paris: The right to benefit from scientific progress
• Ellen Hazelkorn, Ireland: The influence and impact of research assessments on higher education, policy and society                  |
| 10:45  | The perspective of funders and universities                 | • Bonnie Wolff-Boenisch, Science Europe: Insights from member survey “Research assessment practices”
• Bregt Saenen, European University Association EUA: Insights from member survey “Open Science and Access & research assessment” |
| 11:30  | Coffee Break                                                |                                                                                                                                 |
| 11:50  | What’s wrong with current research assessments and ways forward | • Stephen Curry, DORA Steering Committee Chair & Imperial College London, UK: The San Francisco Declaration on Research Assessment (DORA) (remote)
• Sabine Kleinert, Co-Organiser of the World Conference on Research Integrity WCRI & Senior Executive Editor of The Lancet: The “Hong Kong Manifesto for Assessing Researchers” (WCRI 2019)
• Martin Dominik, GYA Executive Committee (2016-17) & University of St Andrews, Scotland: The GYA report “Publishing models, assessment, and open science”
• Frank Baaijens, Rector at Eindhoven University of Technology, member of the Dutch Knowledge Coalition, Netherlands: The Coalition’s project “Room for everyone’s talent: towards a new balance in the recognition and rewards of academics” |
| 13:00  | Lunch                                                       |                                                                                                                                 |
| 14:15  | The place of science in society: panel and participant discussion | Antonio Loprieno, Koen Vermeir, Ellen Hazelkorn, Sabine Kleinert, Frank Baaijens, Kostas Glinos
(European Commission, Head of Unit “Open Science”)                                                                                   |
| 15:30  | Closing                                                     |                                                                                                                                 |

Moderators by members of the ALLEA Permanent Working Group Science and Ethics: Roger Pfister, Swiss Academies of Arts and Sciences (symposium) & Maura Hiney, Health Research Board Ireland (panel)